Annex 1

Any graduate students satisfying any of the following exemption conditions may, within the specified period of time, submit an application for exemption from English courses required for a graduate degree. Upon the examination and approval by the applicable unit, such graduate students may directly obtain credits and grades, which are recorded as “exempted” , and not counted as GPA. However, English academic writing and communication course may not be exempted.

I. Exemption Conditions

- (1) TOEFL score iBT 100 (inclusive) or above; or
- (2) IELTS score of 7 (inclusive) or above; or
- (3) GRE score of 310 (inclusive) (new system) or above; or
- (4) GMAT score of 650 or above; or
- (5) having passed the English Major Grade 8 Examination (TEM8) organized and implemented by the National Advisory Committee on Teaching English Language to Majors in Higher Education under the Ministry of Education; or
- (6) A score of 600 (inclusive) or above in the National College English Test Band 6 (CET-6); or
- (7) having studied in an English-speaking country or region using English and having obtained a bachelor’s degree or above.

II. Supporting Documents

The graduate students who meet the above-mentioned exemptions shall, as of the admission, provide the relevant supporting documents:

- (1) TOEFL, IELTS, GRE, GMAT, TEM8 or CET-6 transcript(s) obtained within the past 3 years; or
 - (2) a bachelor's degree or above obtained through study in English-speaking country or region using English.

III. Application Measures

The graduate students who meet the above-mentioned exemption conditions shall, as required by this notice, and within the specified time, submit an application for exemption and upload the attached materials that meet the requirements in the provost system for graduate students, which will be reviewed by the educational unit, the language centre, and the Graduate School.

IV. These Measures shall come into force from the date of issuance, and be interpreted by the Graduate School.
